William Inge and James Patton joined the Hoosiers coaching staff in the offseason. Inge serves as co-defensive coordinator and coaches the linebackers. Patton is Indiana's recruiting coordinator, special teams coordinator and assistant defensive line coach.

Inge was the Buffalo Bills assistant defensive line coach in 2012 after two seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Buffalo. Patton has 14 years of experience in the Midwest, spending seven as a player and coach at Miami (Ohio) University and seven as an assistant coach at Northwestern University. He coached the offensive line at the University of Oklahoma from 2006-12.

Patton has coached in 10 bowl games and on six conference championship teams. He spent six years with IU head coach Kevin Wilson at Miami (1990-94, 98), three at Northwestern (1999-2001) and five at Oklahoma (2006-10).

Seven additional Hoosiers received honorable mention recognition. The nine honorees were the most for the IU program since 2001, when 12 Hoosiers collected league laurels.

Replogle earned second team accolades from the conference coaches and media, while Latimer was recognized as a second-teamer by the media and was an honorable mention selection by the coaches

HOOSIERS HOST EIGHT GAMES

For the third time in school history, the Indiana football team will open the season on a Thursday night at Memorial Stadium. The Hoosiers will host Indiana State on Thursday, Aug. 29.

IU is 2-0 in Thursday season openers at Memorial Stadium, defeating Eastern Kentucky in 2009 and Towson in 2010.

The Indiana State game is the first of eight home contests in 2013 and marks the second time in school history the program will host eight games (2008).

Navy makes its first trip to Bloomington since 1986 on Sept. 7. The Hoosiers have won both meetings between the two programs at Memorial Stadium.

Indiana faces Bowling Green for the first time on Sept. 14 and wraps up the non-conference schedule against Missouri on Sept. 21. IU is 6-2-2 all-time against the Tigers, including a 20-10 home victory the last time the two teams met on Sept. 26, 1992.

Following a bye week, the Hoosiers open Big Ten play against Penn State on Oct. 5. Indiana will host Minnesota (Nov. 2) and Illinois (Nov. 9) before closing out the regular season and battling Purdue for the Old Oaken Bucket on Nov. 30.

YOUTH WAS SERVED

Kevin Wilson has made it no secret that he is not afraid to play true freshmen, and he has certainly lived up to his word. Indiana played 16 in 2011, tied for the third most in the country.

- Additionally, 16 redshirt freshmen saw action. The 32 total freshmen were the highest total in the nation.
- IU played 11 true freshmen and five redshirt freshmen in 2012.
- In 2012, 24 of the 35 starters were underclassmen 13 on offense and 11 on defense including 21 sophomores, one redshirt freshman and two true freshmen.
- Indiana only had eight seniors on its 2012 roster, tied for the fewest in the country. Of the eight, only five came to Bloomington on scholarship.
- Of the 105 players invited to 2012 camp, 76 were underclassmen (72.4 percent), 39 were freshmen (37.1) and 32 were true freshmen (30.5).

INDIANA

2011-: Head Coach

- One of the most innovative and prolific offensive minds in the country, Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010.
- It is clear Wilson has the Hoosiers tracking on the right path. He and his staff assembled the highestrated recruiting class in program history after showing considerable progress on the field in 2012.
- Despite fielding the youngest team in the country, the Hoosiers quadrupled their win total from 2011 and lost contests by one, two, three and four points. IU won back-to-back Big Ten games for the first time since 2007.
- Indiana boasted nine All-Big Ten honorees, the most for the program since 2001. The Hoosiers six honorees on offense and three honorees along the offensive line were the program's most since 2001.
- Offensive linemen Jason Spriggs and Dan Feeney earned freshman All-America honors. Running back Tevin Coleman, defensive end Zack Shaw and quarterback Nate Sudfeld joined the duo as All-Big Ten freshman selections, pushing Indiana's two-year total to eight.
- Defensive tackle Adam Replogle became the eighth Hoosier to collect Academic All-America honors and the first since 2007.
- Twenty-two Hoosiers received Academic All-Big Ten accolades. Coupled with 2011's school-record 24 honorees, the program set a two-year mark with 46 award winners under Wilson.
- Indiana played 32 freshmen in 2011, the highest total in the country, and played 16 more in 2012. Twenty-seven of the 48 were true freshmen in the two years.
- The Hoosiers only suited up eight seniors in 2012, tied for the fewest in the country, and twenty-four of the 35 starters were underclassmen.
- In 2011, linebacker Chase Hoobler, safety Mark Murphy and offensive lineman Bernard Taylor each collected freshman postseason honors.
- Spent the 2002-10 seasons at the University of Oklahoma. He served as co-offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 2002-05 and as offensive coordinator and tight ends and fullbacks coach from 2006-10
- Led some of the most productive offenses in the history of college football, coached in 10 consecutive bowl games and made seven BCS bowl appearances, including three national championship games (2003, '04, '08).
- OU played in seven Big 12 Title games in Wilson's nine years, going 6-1 in those appearances.
 His offenses were vital to accumulating an overall record of 99-24 (.805) during his time in Norman, including seven 10-win seasons.
- Over Wilson's time at Oklahoma, 26 offensive players were drafted into the NFL, including seven firstround selections, with three going among the first 10 picks and two in the top five.
- Served as position coach for three All-Americans, an Outland Trophy winner (Jammal Brown), a Mackey Award finalist (Jermaine Gresham) and a two-time Rimington Trophy finalist (Vince Carter).

- As position coach, Wilson tutored three first-round draft picks (Jermaine Gresham, TE 2010, Davin Joseph, OL - 2006 and Jammal Brown, OL - 2005), a second-round pick (Chris Chester, OL - 2005), a fifth-round pick (Brody Eldridge, TE - 2010), two sixth-round picks (James Hanna, TE - 2012; Wes Sims, OL - 2004) and six free agents at Oklahoma.
- Twice a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award awarded to the nation's top assistant coach, Wilson won the award in 2008.
- In 2010, the Sooners earned a 48-20 victory over Connecticut in the Fiesta Bowl and also claimed the seventh Big 12 championship in school history.
- During the 2010 campaign, running back DeMarco Murray set the school record for career touchdowns and also broke the OU mark for career all-purpose yards.
- Guided wide receiver Ryan Broyles to eight Sooner receiving records, including career marks for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns. Broyles led the nation with 131 receptions in 2010.
- His 2008 offense shattered NCAA records by scoring 60-or-more points in five straight games and 716 total points for the entire season to average more than 51 points per contest.
- The 2008 team played in the BCS National Championship Game behind Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Sam Bradford.
- In 2008, Bradford passed for 4,720 yards and 50 touchdowns, Chris Brown and DeMarco Murray both rushed for over 1,000 yards, Juaquin Iglesias caught 74 balls for 1,150 yards and Jermaine Gresham added 66 catches for 950 yards.
- Bradford ranked No. 1 nationally in passing efficiency as a freshman in 2007 and again in 2008, as he threw for more touchdowns (86) in two seasons than anyone in NCAA history.
- In the 2010 NFL Draft, Bradford was selected with the No. 1 overall pick by the St. Louis Rams. He captured the 2010 Associated Press NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honor.
- Three of Wilson's tight ends, Jermaine Gresham, Brody Eldridge and Joe Jon Finley, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2007.
- Wilson was also instrumental in the development of Adrian Peterson. Peterson rushed for 1,925 yards in his freshman campaign (2004), which set an OU single-season record and marked the highest total for a freshman in NCAA history.
- Peterson went on to place second in the Heisman voting, which at the time was the highest finish ever by a freshman. He was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings as the seventh pick in the 2007 NFL Draft, where he was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. Peterson won the 2012 NFL Most Valuable Player Award after he rushed for 2,097 yards, just nine shy of the NFLs single-season mark.

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT KEVIN WILSON...

"We want to thank Kevin for his role in helping our program win six Big 12 Championships. His attention to detail, innovation and ability to develop players to their fullest ability have helped us remain a strong program. Our offenses have been effective because they're multiple and dynamic, and yet loyal to the basic football principles of being physical and fundamentally sound. By going to Indiana, Kevin returns to a region of the country and a conference that he knows very well. He'll have a solid plan for the football program there and the dedication required to carry it out. Kevin, Angie and the entire Wilson family leave with our gratitude for a job well done with the Sooners, and our best wishes for continued success with the Hoosiers."

-BOB STOOPS-Oklahoma Head Football Coach

"Coach Wilson is a great coach. Playing in his system definitely prepared me for the NFL and what I am doing right now. If you look at what he did with our offense at Oklahoma, it speaks volumes about the coach he is. He has a great feel for offense, is a people person and has a great personality. He will have a lot of success at Indiana and is a great hire."

-SAM BRADFORD- St. Louis Rams Quarterback, 2010 No. 1 Overall Pick

"I know about Kevin through his relationship with Randy Walker, who was like a son to me. Randy had the greatest respect for Kevin and he really thought he was an excellent coach. Kevin has a tremendous coaching background and is a good, quality coach and person."

-BILL MALLORY-Former IU Head Football Coach (1984-96)

"IU Fans should get excited because a great coach is coming to town and he is going to do great things there. Coach Wilson deserves a lot of the credit for where I am now."

-BRODY ELDRIDGE-Chicago Bears Tight End

"I've been following Kevin in his career for a long time. The interesting thing about this marriage between Kevin and Indiana is his background with Randy Walker at Miami (Ohio) and Northwestern. Kevin is very familiar with the Big Ten and the Midwest, spending time there before moving on to a dominant program like Oklahoma. He's grown so much at Oklahoma, too. When you combine his knowledge, his background and his ability to recruit; I think it's a perfect fit for what IU is looking for."

-KIRK HERBSTREIT-ESPN College Football Analyst "Over the years we developed the highest regard for Coach Stoops and the Oklahoma program. We know that Coach Wilson brings the most solid of values and implementation with him from OU. In addition, we had the pleasure of drafting Brody Eldridge and saw first hand how fundamentally sound and well prepared he was. I am certain that is a direct reflection of what Coach Wilson did with the OU offense. I think Hoosier fans will be excited about the total program and offensive approach that Coach Wilson will bring to Bloomington. We wish him the best in his new position."

-BILL POLIAN-NFL Executive

"Having worked with Kevin at Miami (Ohio) for two years (1994-95) while he was offensive coordinator and offensive line coach, I know that he takes the job as head coach at Indiana University prepared with tremendous experience, and an understanding of what is required to be successful."

-SEAN PAYTON-New Orleans Saints Head Coach

"With being at Oklahoma for nine years, he knows exactly what it takes to win. Add in his previous experience coaching and playing in the Midwest, and I think he has the right combination to make a nice fit for Indiana. He has some A-pluses in many of the categories that administrators and IU fans would like to see."

-ANTWAAN RANDLE EL- Former NFL Wide Receiver & Hoosier Great

"I'm excited for the future of Indiana Football and what Kevin Wilson brings to the university. His background as a coach, his ability to develop student-athletes and his strong family values make him an excellent candidate to lead the Hoosiers."

-TRENT GREEN-Former NFL & IU Quarterback

"When you play for Coach Wilson, your best is expected at all times. Excuses are few and far between. I've played for some great offensive line coaches, but he is the best I've played for as a complete person. Not only is he a great coach, but a great father, a great friend and a great person. He really pushed me. Challenged me as a player, challenged me as a student; all to make me a complete person. Since then he's always had a special place in my heart."

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics effective January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. The fifth athletic director in eight years, Glass was hired to heal and lead a department that had been rocked by the firing of a legendary basketball coach, the untimely death of a beloved football coach, and an infamous major NCAA infractions case that placed the entire department on probation. Since assuming this role, Glass has worked tirelessly to return IU to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the country.

At the press conference announcing his appointment, Glass set out the four priorities that have been the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director. 1, play by the rules; 2) achieve academically and graduate student-athletes; 3) excel athletically and win championships; and 4) integrate athletics into the rest of the University, Building on these priorities and working with student-athletes, coaches, faculty and others Glass subsequently unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics core values, mission statement, and strategic plan all rolled into one, 1the Spirit of Indiana; 24 Sports, One Team. It is the standard by which III Athletics sets priorities, allocate resources, and makes decisions: We are able people of integrity who play by the rules. We reach our highest academic potential and earn Indiana University degrees. We reach our highest athletic potential and win championships. We are unselfish leaders and teammatse. We represent Indiana University with passion, appreciation, respect and distinction. We are positive, responsible, inclusive and integrated with our University. We are a part of something bigger than ourselves.

Now in just his fifth year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's return to athletic success consistent with these priorities and values.

On the field since Glass's arrival, ten I/U teams have won conference championships, 24 sudant-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports (most in the conference), and the department has produced seven NCAA individual champions. In 2012-13, men's soccer won the school's 26th National Team Championship, men's baskethall won the outnight Big Ten their for the first time since 1933, high jumper Derek Drouin won the NCAA high jump title in both Indoor and Outdoor Teak and Field, and baseball won the schools first outnight Big Ten Championship in 81 years and became the first Big Ten School to go to the College World Series since 1984. For his exploits, Drouin won the Jessee Woens Award, given to the Big Ten Sets male athlete (first I/U Afflette since Anthony Thompson in 1990). For the first time in program history, I/U had two players (Victor Oladipo and Cody Zeller) taken in the top five picks in the NBA draft. Men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley and baseball coach Tracy Smith were named National Coach of the Year in their respective sports, marking the first time in I/U history that two coaches have won National Coach of the Year accolades in the same school year. Due to these and other successes, I/U finished 2 rad in the Men's Capital One Cup Standings for 2012-13 (best finish in school history).
Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass hired men's societ coach Todd Yeagley who went on to win the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in his first season at Indiana in 2010 and later the NCAA Championship in 2012. In December of 2010, Glass hired highly respected and record setting offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson from Oldshoma as Indiana's new heaf forbtall coach. In 2008, Wilson won the prestigious Broyles Award for being the nation's top assistant coach. In 2012, Glass hired one of the winningest women's basekteall coaches in history, Cur Miller, from Bowling Green. In his last eight years at Bowling Green, Miller's teams won the regular season or tournament championship or both every year, and Miller was named MAC Coach of the Year six times. In 2013, Glass hired Any Berbary, one of the most respected young soccer coaches in the country to helm the women's soccer program, and U.S. Olympic Diving Coach Drew Johansen to lead Indiana's celebrated diving program.

In Glass' tenure, Indiana student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well as on the playing field. With 11 teams earning a perfect 1,000 APR for the 2011-12 cadedmic year, Indiana University's 24 sports comfortably exceed NCAA required standards according to the NCAA's most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rate report. The 11 progress earning a perfect score for 2011-12 were men's basketball, men's cross country, men's golf, men's soccer, men's tennis, men's outdoor track, wrestling, women's golf, women's softball, women's socread women's ternis. With perfect multi-year scores of 1,000, the Unen's basketball, men's golf and women's tennis programs were recognized for having the top APR score nationally in their respective sports. The cademic success of these teams is fortunately very typical of all UI sports which routinely exceed the NCAA 295 standard by a very large margin, in the 2012-13 school year, 256 Indiana University student-athletes earned Academic IAI-Big Ten distinction.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue the departments priorities, Glass has eliminated six of the eight senior staff positions he inherited freeing up over a million dollars; improved private fundraising, including securing the largest gift in the history of III Athelies: $15 million from Bill and Gayle Cook; rengegiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports; and negotiated a $3 million agreement to play Penn State at Fed-Ex Field, among other innovative revenue generating initiatives. As a result of Glass's releantless focus on improving the game day football experience in and around Memorial Stadium, football attendance in Glass' first year as AD increased by $276, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest ID attendance since 1997. These attendance gains have been maintained and, in fact, a new attendance record was set in 2010. Indianal led the Bilg pin in increased football attendance in 2012. Again focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in the country and second highest in the conference, propelling Indiana to the 11th highest total attendance increased again as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets (12,400) than any other rooram in the country and overall attendance increased again as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets (12,400) than any other rooram in the country and overall attendance internated international country and overall attendance international country and overall attendance in the country

With the help of these additional resources, Glass has furthered the department's priorities by adding personnel to make IUS compliance staff the second largest in the conference, adding academic advisors to move IU from nimit to third in the conference in student-athlete to academic advisor ratio; building a state of the art, 25,800 square foot, $3 million academic neture moving IU from the smallest to the fourth largest and most modern) academic center in the conference; opening a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center, upon completion the largest facility of its idn in the Big Fin - (replacing a facility that ranked last in the conference); opening Cook Hall, the finest baskethall development facility and program shrine in the country; and otherwise improving the facilities of all 24 of IUs sports programs. In August 2011, Glass secured IU Board of Trustees approval for construction of new baseball and softball complexes Bart Kaufman Field and Anny Mohr Field. The $138 million baseball/soft programs with the stable of the sport of the 2013 season and allowed the baseball program to host the first NCAA Regional in school history. Glass successfully guided IU Athletics off of NCAA probation in November 2011.

To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Indiana University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy, The Excellence Academy integrates a theliet department and university resources to assess, measure and ensure progress toward specific personal development goals. The Academy fully integrates the athletic department's cacademic support and life solid development programs, innovative strength and conditioning regimens, advanced sports medicine and athletic training services, expert sports psychology staff, and one of the very few full-time sports nutritionists in intercollegate athletics, along with cutting-edge resources from other parts of the university. The Excellence Academy is emerging as one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensives internating the control.

comprehensive student-athlete development programs in the country. In 2011, Class established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating the top athletic and academic achievements of IU student-athletes over the last year. Class also announced the creation of the Spirit of Indiana Director's Award that honors the senior male and female student-athletes who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana 24 Sports, One Team.

Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting, Each year of his tenure the Athletic Department has been financially self-sufficient without any special subsidy from the university, tax dollars, or student fees. In fact, the Athletic Department actually pays over $12 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books, and fees for its scholarship sudent-athletes.

Glass loves supporting IU's student-athiletes and often attends competitions and practices, including travelling on road trips with the teams. Glass enjoys being present with the student-athiletes, whether it's wearing a kit at a field hockey game as a result of a challenge with players, sitting on the bench with the volleyball and softlatt learns, finding the bus with the baseball iteam, or jumping in the pool with the women's swimming and diving team upon winning their third straight Big fen title. He also enjoys interacting with IU fans and is a fixture at pregame tailigate gatherings and cheering with the fans in the stans.

In the spring of 2011, Glass had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids flighting cancer at a St. Baldrick event in Indianapolis, raising over $20,000 for the cause.

THE OLD BRASS SPITTOON

The Old Brass Spittoon has been awarded to the winner of the Indiana-Michigan State football game since the trophy's inception in 1950.

The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and student council at Michigan State and was quickly accepted by the Indiana Student Senate

The spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 200 years old. Legend holds that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded (IU - 1820, MSU - 1855).

Indiana and Michigan State have faced each other since 1922 and the trophy became a part of the series 28 years after the first meeting.

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET

The symbol of football supremacy between Indiana and Purdue, the Old Oaken Bucket, has become one of the nation's most recognized and famed trophies in its 88 years of spirited rivalry.

Both institutions had been meeting on the football field since 1891 when the Indiana and Purdue Alumni Clubs of Chicago held a joint meeting in 1925 to "discuss the possibility of undertaking a worthy joint enterprise on behalf of the two schools." Dr. Clarence Jones proposed the creation of a traditional football trophy to go to the winner of the annual clash. Dr. Jones and Russel Gray of Purdue were appointed to recommend a suitable trophy by J. Frank Lindsey, (Indiana, class of 1913), who was elected chairman of the joint committee.

At a later meeting they recommended "an old oaken bucket as the most typical Hoosier form of trophy, that the bucket should be taken from some well in Indiana, and that a chain to be made of bronze block 'I' and 'P' letters should be provided for the bucket. The school winning the traditional football game each year should have possession of the 'Old Oaken Bucket' until the next game and should attach the block letter representing the winning school to the bail with the score engraved on the latter link."

Fritz Ernst of Purdue and Indiana's Wiley J. Huddle were given the task of finding the bucket. They located it on the old Bruner Farm between Kent and Hanover in southern Indiana. The region had been settled by the Bruner family in the 1840s, making today's bucket around 175 years of age.

Excellent repair work put the bucket, moss and mold-covered with some staves showing signs of decay, into good shape for its initial appearance, which ended in a 0-0 tie in 1925.

SMITHVILLE CRIMSON & GOLD CUP

The rivalry between Indiana and Purdue continues with the 2013-14 Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup. The overall winner of the contest is awarded a trophy at the end of the season.

Indiana defeated Purdue by a 12-7 total to capture the 2012-13 Smithville Crimson & Gold Cup. The Hoosiers lead the all-sports competition between the two schools, 6-1-2.

Each sport can earn one point toward the overall championship. A total of 19 points can be won. The winner of regular season head-to-head competition earns the point for its institution. Should the teams split or tie in regular season competition the point is split between the two institutions. If the two institutions do not compete in a head-to-head regular season competition, the team that places higher at the Big Ten Championships will be awarded the point.

1968 ROSE BOWL

JANUARY 1, 1968 • PASADENA, CALIF.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA 14 INDIANA 3

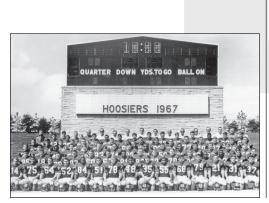

On Nov. 25, 1967, Indiana University improved its record to 9-1 with a 19-14 upset win over Purdue in the regular-season finale. The win clinched the Big Ten title and secured the Hoosiers' initial postseason bid - a trip to the Rose Bowl and a tilt against top-ranked and O.J. Simpson-led Southern California. Remarkably, just one season earlier in 1966, Indiana had finished the season with a 1-8-1 record.

IU's only Rose Bowl appearance would not be an easy task for the Hoosiers. However, 102,946 fans watched intently as Indiana would give the Trojans everything they could handle for four quarters.

USC tallied first when All-America running back Simpson (25-128-2TDs rushing) scored on a 2-yard touchdown run in the first quarter to cap an 84-yard scoring drive. Indiana would answer just one quarter later. The Hoosiers had a first-and-goal inside the Southern California 10-yard line but could not score a touchdown. However, Indiana kicker David Kornowa did connect on a 27-yard field goal attempt that pulled the Hoosiers to within 7-3, a lead that USC would take into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, the Trojans put together their final scoring drive of the day. This time it was a 45-yard drive capped by an eight-yard touchdown run by Simpson. The "Cardiac Kids," a nickname that IU had been given because of several exciting comebacks throughout the 1967 campaign, would threaten one more time but could not close the gap. IU moved to the USC 37-yard line midway through the fourth stanza but failed on two chances to gain a first down with just inches to go.

1979 HOLIDAY BOWL

DECEMBER 21, 1979 • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.

INDIANA 38 BRIGHAM YOUNG 37

Many people described it as the most exciting game of the 1979 bowl season. The 1979 Holiday Bowl featured Indiana and Brigham Young. The two squads would combine to score 75 total points in addition to tallying 52 first downs and 874 yards of total offense. However, after eight lead changes, Indiana stood victorious, 38-37, over the previously unbeaten Cougars.

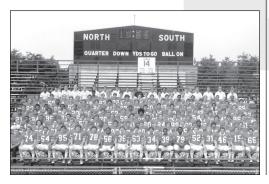

Having finished the 1979 regular season with a 7-4 record, Indiana looked to gain its initial bowl victory when it faced off against the Cougars.

It was a tight battle throughout as Brigham Young quarterback Marc Wilson completed 28-of-43 passes for 380 yards and 2 TDs. Throughout the game, he showed many reasons why he led the nation in passing and total offense during the regular season. However, IU found a way to answer every BYU score.

The Cougars would take a 24-21 lead early in the third quarter, but IU tallied right back when running back Mike Harkrader (24-71-1TD rushing) scored on a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 28-24 lead. Indiana kicker Kevin Kellogg would then connect on a 26-yard field goal to increase the IU lead to 31-24. However, a 29-yard field goal by BYU and a 15-yard touchdown strike from Wilson to fullback Eric Lane, put the Cougars in front, 34-31, at the end of three quarters.

The fourth quarter did not lack for theatrics. BYU would score the quarter's first points to increase its lead to 37-31. However, Indiana's Tim Wilbur countered with a 62-yard punt return to tie the game at 37-37. Kellogg would add the extra point to give IU a one-point advantage with 6:53 remaining in the contest. Brigham Young had the opportunity to win the contest on a field goal attempt with just 11 seconds remaining. However, a 27-yard effort by Cougar kicker Brent Johnson failed, and IU held on for the thrilling 38-37 victory.

1986 ALL-AMERICAN BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1986 • BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

FLORIDA STATE 27 INDIANA 13

Although he finished with an 0-11 record during his first campaign at Indiana in 1984, it would take Bill Mallory just three seasons to lead the Hoosiers to their first bowl appearance under his direction. Indiana finished with a 6-5 regular-season record in 1986 and capped its season by playing a talented Florida State team in the 1986 All-American Bowl on New Year's Eve in Birmingham, Ala.

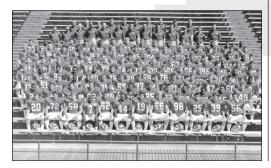

Despite losing 27-13, the Hoosiers would go on to make bowl appearances following four of the next five seasons.

Florida State used four time-consuming scoring drives that averaged 66 yards each to capture the 10th annual All-American Bowl. IU penetrated inside the Seminole 35-yard line four times without a score.

Indiana would tally first as Pete Stoyanovich connected on a 35-yard field goal to give the Hoosiers a 3-0 lead. However, Florida State running back Sammie Smith (25-205-2TDs) scored on runs of four and nine yards in the first and second quarters, respectively, to give the Seminoles a 13-3 halftime lead.

The Seminoles would score another touchdown during the third quarter that would essentially clinch the victory. IU did close the gap to within 20-13 in the fourth quarter, but FSU iced the game with a 68-yard scoring drive.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson, who was playing in his first bowl game, finished with 127 rushing yards on 28 carries and quarterback Dave Kramme threw for 168 yards. IU dominated the time of possession and totaled more first downs (23-20) and total yards (383-342) than Florida State. However, the Seminoles rushed for 288 yards and were forced into third-down situations on just three occasions during the entire game.

1988 PEACH BOWL

JANUARY 2, 1988 • ATLANTA, GA.

TENNESSEE 27 INDIANA 22

Tennessee drove 40 yards in nine plays and scored on a 9-yard touchdown run by running back Reggie Cobb with just 1:52 remaining in the game to clinch a 27-22 victory over Indiana in the 20th Peach Bowl. The game, which was played on Jan. 2, 1988, at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, was witnessed by 58,737 fans. Despite the disappointing loss, IU finished the season with an 8-4 record, which included wins over Michigan and Ohio State.

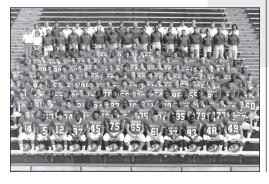

the IU 9-yard line that gave the Volunteers an opportunity to put the game out of reach. However, IU forced a fumble and drove 91 yards for a touchdown, a 43-yard pass play from quarterback Dave Schnell (33-18-218-1TD-2INTs) to wide receiver Ernie Jones (7-150-1TD). The score narrowed IU's deficit to 21-10 prior to halftime.

The lone score of the third period was a 12-yard run by running back Anthony Thompson (18-67-1TD) that moved Indiana to within 21-16, however, the two-point conversion failed. In the fourth quarter, Indiana scored on a fake field goal attempt when tight end Tim Jorden ran 12 yards for a score that gave IU a one-point lead, 22-21. The two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Tennessee, which had come from behind on four other occasions during the 1987 campaign would turn the trick again as Cobb scored his second touchdown of the game, this one a 9-yard run, to give Tennessee the 27-22 victory.

Tennessee gained 474 yards of total offense, including 146 rushing yards and two touchdowns from Cobb, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. However, Jones was just as impressive, as he finished with 246 all-purpose yards (150 receiving, 15 rushing, 81 kickoff returns). Indiana linebacker Van Waiters was recognized as the game's Most Valuable Defensive Player.

1988 LIBERTY BOWL

DECEMBER 28, 1988 • MEMPHIS, TENN.

INDIANA 34 SOUTH CAROLINA 10

After finishing the regular season with a 7-3-1 record and a 5-3 mark in the Big Ten, Indiana earned a postseason berth for the third consecutive year and played South Carolina in the Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn. The Hoosiers dominated the game and cruised to a 34-10 victory before 39,210 fans.

Indiana running back Anthony Thompson (26-140-2TDs) began the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, and the Hoosiers would add 10 more second-quarter points to take a 17-0 halftime lead. The Gamecocks would close the gap to 17-7 in the third quarter when they scored on a 34-yard return of a blocked punt. The two teams would then trade third-quarter field goals and the fourth quarter began with Indiana leading, 20-10.

ERTY BOWL

Although Indiana dominated throughout, the game-breaking play occurred on the first snap of the fourth quarter when Indiana quarterback Dave Schnell (31-16-378-2TDs-1INT) hooked up with wide receiver Rob Turner (5-182-1TD) on an 88-yard touchdown pass that upped IU's lead to 27-10. Thompson would cap the scoring with an 8-yard touchdown run later that quarter that earned him a tie for the Big Ten single-season touchdown record with 26 scores.

Indiana set a Liberty Bowl record with 575 yards of total offense. South Carolina, on the other hand, could muster only 153 total yards, including just 23 yards rushing. The IU defense intercepted three passes and recovered a fumble to go along with six quarterback sacks.

Schnell was the game's Most Valuable Player, and wide receiver Tony Buford caught three passes for 100 yards.

1990 PEACH BOWL

DECEMBER 30, 1990 • ATLANTA, GA.

AUBURN 27 INDIANA 23

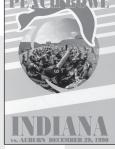

Indiana finished with a 6-4-1 regular-season record in 1990, a mark good enough to earn the Hoosiers a berth in the Peach Bowl for a date with the Auburn Tigers. The game, which was played at Fulton County Stadium in Atlanta on Dec. 30, 1990, was one of the best games played during the 1990 bowl season.

Auburn led Indiana 17-10 at halftime and increased its lead to 20-10 on a 43-yard field goal during the third quarter, but the Hoosiers returned the favor as quarterback Trent Green scored on touchdown runs of two and 11 yards to give IU a 23-20 lead.

However, Auburn quarterback Stan White (48-31-351-1TD passing and 2 TD runs) would direct the Tigers on a 13-play, 72-yard, 1:40-minute, scoring drive. He capped the drive himself when he scored on a 1-yard run with just 39 seconds remaining in the game. The touchdown gave Auburn a 27-23 victory.

Auburn dominated the game statistically, as the Tigers tallied 440 total yards to IU's 220. However, Indiana utilized a solid kicking game to keep the game close. Trent Green tied a Peach Bowl record with his three rushing touchdowns while running back Vaughn Dunbar (21-81) and free safety Mike Dumas (14 tackles, 4 passes broken up) earned offensive and defensive Most Valuable Player honors, respectively.

INDIANA 24 BAYLOR 0

In one of the most impressive performances by any team during the 1991 bowl season, Indiana dominated a highly-regarded Baylor team in the Copper Bowl, 24-0.

Indiana wasted little time getting started as it jumped to a 17-0 halftime lead and was never threatened on its way to winning its second bowl game in four years.

Indiana quarterback Trent Green (21-11-165-0-0 passing, 2 rushing touchdowns) broke the Hoosiers into the scoring column when he tallied a 1-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. IU would increase its lead one quarter later when kicker Scott Bonnell connected on a 27-yard field goal attempt and running back Vaughn Dunbar (28-106-1TD rushing) scored on a 5-yard touchdown run to give the Hoosiers a 17-0 halftime advantage.

IU's only scary moment came in the third quarter when Baylor reached Indiana's 2-yard line. However, a muffed handoff resulted in a fumble that was recovered in the end zone by free safety Damon Watts and the game was, for all intents and purposes, over.

Dunbar won game Most Valuable Player honors on offense and linebacker Mark Hagen (11 tackles, including 2 tackles for loss, and 1 pass broken up) was the game's defensive MVP.

1993 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 1993 • SHREVEPORT, LA.

VIRGINIA TECH 45 INDIANA 20

Virginia Tech used two touchdowns in the final 23 seconds of the first half to post a 45-20 victory over Indiana in the 1993 Independence Bowl.

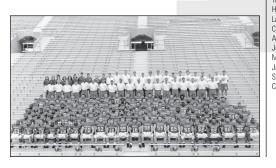

On the positive side of the ledger for IU, wide receiver Thomas Lewis tallied six receptions for 177 yards and two touch-downs. However, Virginia Tech quarterback Maurice DeShazo completed 19-of-33 passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns on his way to earning offensive game MVP honors.

On the other side of the ball, safety Antonio Banks was the game's defensive MVP as he tallied nine tackles, one interception and one pass broken up, in addition to a touchdown on the blocked field goal.

Indiana finished the 1993 season with an 8-4 record. Two of its three regular season losses were by seven points or less.

2007 INSIGHT BOWL

DECEMBER 31, 2007 • TEMPE, ARIZ.

OKLAHOMA STATE 49 INDIANA 33

Indiana capped off an emotional season in achieving late head coach Terry Hoeppner's dream of "Playing 13," as the Hoosiers returned to a postseason bowl for the first time in 14 years at the 2007 Insight Bowl.

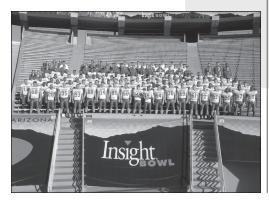

Oklahoma State's no-huddle offense took a strong first half lead, and it was too much for a spirited Hoosier squad to overcome in a 49-33 defeat. The Hoosiers rallied from a 35-10 halftime deficit to get within two scores on two separate occasions in the second half.

Kellen Lewis threw for 204 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the loss, tying IU great Antwaan Randle EI for first place on the all-time list with 42 TD passes in his career. The sophomore quarterback also ran for 83 yards on 10 carries and scored a touchdown on the ground.

The Hoosiers drove 52 yards on 11 plays on their opening drive, taking a 3-0 lead on Austin Starr's 43-yard field goal at the 10:41 mark of the opening quarter. But OSU scored the next 28 points of the game before the Hoosiers made it 28-10 on a Marcus Thigpen 4-yard TD grab. Cowboy quarterback Zac Robinson tacked on a 1-yard run just before the half to give OSU a 25-point lead at the break.

IU struck with the first points of the second half on a Lewis 1-yard run that followed a 4th-and-8 conversion on a fake field goal pass from Lewis to Starr. The Cowboys rebutted with a TD of their own, and 16 fourth quarter points by the Hoosiers proved to not be enough to overcome the early deficit.

ALL-TIME COACHES

CAM CAMERON • 1997-2001 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 18-37 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 12-28

Cam Cameron led the Hoosiers for five seasons and complied a record of 18-37. He was the second Indiana alum (A.B. Woodford, 1887) to take over at the helm of the IU football program. Cameron played both football and basketball for Indiana in the early 1980s. Prior to joining the Indiana coaching ranks, he served as an assistant coach for the Washington Redskins in the NFL. Cameron brought an explosive offense to Memorial Stadium and a new look to Hoosier football Indiana took the field with a new oval IU logo, Indiana averaged 23.6 points per game under Cameron's guidance. The Hoosiers enjoyed success as well in the classroom, as IU was recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its exemplary football graduation rates in each of Cameron's final four seasons.

GERRY DINARDO • 2002-2004 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 8-27 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 3-21

In his first season with the Hoosiers, Gerry Di-Nardo led Indiana to a 3-9 record and a 1-7 mark in the Big Ten, including a 3-3 mark at Memorial Stadium. Among those three wins was a come-from-behind, 32-29, upset of No. 23 Wisconsin. The Hoosiers trailed by 19 points in the third quarter before scoring the final 22 points of the game for the victory. During 2004, the Hoosiers had wins over No. 24 Oregon (30-24) and No. 23 Minnesota (30-21). DiNardo finished his IU career with an 8-27 overall record.

TERRY HOEPPNER • 2005-2006 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 9-14 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 4-12

Terry Hoeppner was head coach of the Hoosiers for two years before passing away following a lengthy battle with brain cancer. He will always be remembered as one of the most influential coaches in school history. In just his second season at the helm of the Hoosier program, Hoeppner brought the Hoosiers on the brink of a bowl appearance in 2006. He led the youngest team in the Big Ten (49 true or redshirt freshmen and 72 underclassmen overall), to five victories its most since the 2001 campaign - and restored an enthusiasm in IU football. The 2006 Hoosiers picked up three Big Ten wins for the first time since 2001, including a 31-28 win over No. 13 (Coaches) Iowa. Earning its final conference victory of the season, the Hoosiers dominated Michigan State, 46-21, on Homecoming to bring the Old Brass Spittoon back to Bloomington for the first time since 2001. Hoeppner made an immediate impact in his first year at the helm of the Hoosier program. Coach Hep rejuvenated an IU fan base that enjoyed a 39-percent increase in per-game attendance, a 46-percent increase in overall season ticket sales and a 110-percent increase in student season ticket sales.

BILL LYNCH • 2007-2010 CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 19-30 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 6-26

Bill Lynch served at the helm of the Indiana football program from 2007-10. Lynch led the Hoosiers to a 7-6 record and a trip to the Insight Bowl in his first season. He became the only head coach in Hoosier history to guide a team to a bowl game in his debut season. Lynch led Indiana to its most wins since 1993, its first bowl appearance since that same season, and its first Did Oaken Bucket victory since 2001. The team's seven victories were the second most for a first-year Indiana head coach, behind only James M. Sheldon, who went 8-1-1 in 1905. Il b Doasted three All-Americans, three second-round NFL Draft picks, seven overall NFL Draft picks, 10 All-Big Ten selections, one Academic All-American and 74 Academic All-Big Ten honorees in his four seasons. Lynch also went 2-2 in four Old Oaken Bucket games.

KEVIN WILSON • 2011-CAREER RECORD AT INDIANA: 5-19 BIG TEN RECORD AT INDIANA: 2-14

Kevin Wilson was named Indiana University's 28th head football coach on Dec. 7, 2010. Wilson and his staff assembled the highest-rated recruiting class in program history after showing considerable progress on the field in 2012. Indiana boasted nine All-Big Ten honorees, the most for the program since 2001. The Hoosiers six honorees on offense and three honorees along the offensive line were the program's most since 2001. Defensive tackle Adam Replogle became the eighth Hoosier to collect Academic All-America honors and the first since 2007. Twentytwo Hoosiers received Academic All-Big Ten accolades. Coupled with 2011's school-record 24 honorees, the program set a two-year mark with 46 award winners under Wilson.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael McRobbie became the 18th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2007. IU is one of the largest university systems in the U.S. with eight campuses. а total budget of around $3 billion, and more than 7,000 faculty, 11,000 staff, and 110,000 students.

McRobbie joined IU in 1997 as vice president for information technology and chief information officer, and was appointed vice president for research in 2003. He was named interim provost and vice president for academic affairs for IU's Bloomington campus in 2006, and became president the following year.

As president, McRobbie has refocused IU around six Principles of Excellence — an excellent education, world-class research and scholarship, an outstanding faculty, enhanced international engagement, excellence in health sciences, and in engagement. Supporting these core principles is an essential framework of excellence in the four areas of advancement, infrastructure and facilities, information technology, and administration.

Under McRobbie's leadership, IU has seen a major expansion in the size and quality of IU's student body, a record level of expenditure, a billion dollar expansion of IU's facilities, and the completion of the $1.1 billion "Matching the Promise" endowment campaign at IU Bloomington and the $1.25 billion "IMPACT" campaign at its Indianapolis campus, which recently surpassed the $1 billion mark and is now very close to its goal. These are the first two phases of a $5 billion campaign to be completed in IU's bicentenary year of 2020.

In addition to his duties as president, McRobbie serves on several outside committees and organizations, and is presently the chair of Internet2 and immediate past chair of University Research Associates, which is responsible for Fermi Lab. He is also a member and former chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, and a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board.

McRobbie is vice chairman of the board of the Indiana University Health system — one of the largest and most highly regarded hospital systems in the U.S. — and the OneAmerica insurance company, based in Indianapolis.

McRobbie also holds faculty appointments in computer science, philosophy, cognitive science, informatics, library and information science, and computer technology, and has been an active researcher in information technology and logic over his career. He has been the principal investigator on several major grants, has published a number of books, many articles, and has served on numerous editorial boards and conference committees.

A native of Australia, McRobbie received a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1979, and has honorary doctorates from the University of Queensland (2007), Sung Kyun Kwan University in Korea (2008), the Australia National University (2010) and the South East European University in Macedonia (2011), which IU helped found. In 2013, Thailand's National Institute for Development Administration awarded him its Prince Naradhip Bongsprabandha Plaque for services to international education.

He was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2012 and is an honorary fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities. In 2007, he was made a Sagamore of the Wabash, the highest honor the State of Indiana can bestow on a private individual. And, in 2010, he was made an Officer of the Order of Australia, Australia's national honors system. In 2012, he was listed as one of America's 10 most popular university presidents.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your commitment to our programs. Please be aware that many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (commonly known as a "booster"). Much like our university personnel and student-athletes, boosters must also comply with various NCAA guidelines.

Although the NCAA rulebook is complex, everyone is expected to follow NCAA Bylaws and ask questions when unsure about the application of the rules. Any violation, no matter its size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA. Please help the university avoid these kinds of situations as you support our Hoosier sports programs.

While being a booster has certain privileges, these privileges do not extend to those duties specifically reserved for athletics personnel. ALL recruiting matters should be left to Indiana coaching staffs, and boosters MUST refrain from contacting any potential IU recruits, or their families, coaches or other associated individuals in regards to the prospect's future collegiate enrollment. This includes contacting prospects through the internet or via social networking sites. We encourage you instead to contact the Indiana Athletics Department, at (812) 855-1966, if you wish to recommend an individual whom you believe could contribute to our fine athletics tradition.

Recent violations at several Division I schools have forced another issue into the spotlight: benefits provided to student-athletes that are not available to the general student body. NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes from receiving any free or discounted products or services that are not otherwise available to all other IU students. Sometimes these "extra benefits" are hard to resist, but maintaining eligibility under these rules requires that our student-athletes receive only those benefits that may otherwise be provided to a normal college student, or through our athletic department as a part of their athletic participation. Please assist us in maintaining our commitment to integrity and compliance by not offering any specials, discounts or free items or services to the IU student-athletes — or recruits.

The NCAA and Indiana University take the rules pertaining to boosters and prospective student-athletes very seriously. It does not matter where contact with a prospect occurs or what means of communication is used to reach out to a prospect for recruiting purposes; it could become a rules violation in any scenario. Any improper contact with a prospect prior to that time or any offer or inducement provided to a prospect or their family is a violation of NCAA regulations and could lead to negative consequences for both Indiana and that prospective student-athlete.

The Athletics Department would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about the regulations applying to boosters, feel free to contact any member of the compliance office. Thanks for complying with the NCAA rules, and GO HOOSIERS!

As members of the media assigned to cover Indiana University Athletics, the IU Compliance Office invites you to review a few topics that apply to you as a media member and to our student-athletes as they compete and learn here on the Bloomington campus.

While many friends of the program remain interested in the growth of our programs and recruiting efforts of our coaching staffs, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athletes being recruited by our institution, other than to confirm the prospect's recruitment. Indiana is prohibited from publicizing any visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring campus. These rules are meant to protect the privacy of these prospects and their families as they go through the recruiting process and to provide the freedom necessary for these recruits to make their college choices without undue influence from external entities. Please respect these rules and the prospect's need for privacy during their recruitment – and our need to stay compliant with NCAA publicity of recruiting rules!

Additionally, as we prepare our student-athletes for life following their collegiate career, many will test the waters in professional sports and make agreements with agents. Under Indiana state law, these agents must register with the Indiana State Attorney General prior to making any contacts with current student-athletes. Additionally, our compliance office requires all agents to register internally, in order to better approve and guide their communications with our outgoing student-athletes. Our student-athletes may not make any verbal or written agreement with an agent if they wish to preserve their collegiate eligibility, so we work to protect those interests while they remain at IU. Please help us be vigilant in our efforts by not involving yourselves in this process, and helping us identify agent activity on our campus when you know of, or see it occurring.

As always, we thank you for your commitment to our programs and to helping us make each student-athlete's experience at IU the best it can possibly be. Your support of our compliance office and these specific rules is a large part of ensuring that IU carries on its tradition of excellence both on and off the playing field. If you have any questions about these, or other, NCAA rules please contact a member of our compliance staff or visit our website at: www.iuhoosiers.com/compliance.

PLEASE HELP IU COMPLY WITH NCAA RULES BY NOT DISTRIBUTING OR REDISTRIBUTING THIS MEDIA GUIDE TO PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES. THEIR FAMILIES OR THEIR COACHES.
